WELCOME TO DIAGON ALLEY™

Build your way into magic

Wands and spell books, quills and Quidditch™ gear – there's only one place where you can get it all. The set you now own is packed with intricate details and features, and an extraordinary collection of characters from the Harry Potter™ film series. There's no better way to start a magical adventure than by building your very own Diagon Alley™.

Are you ready to step inside? Turn the page to begin.

OLLIVANDERS™ WAND SHOP & SCRIBBULUS

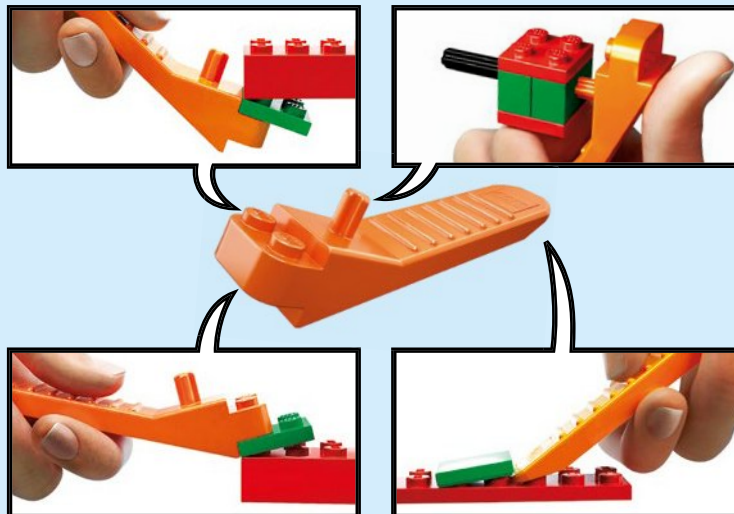

Ollivanders™ Wand Shop

Here's a great place to start your build. Every young witch or wizard's journey must include a visit to Ollivanders™, makers of fine wands since 382 BC. This is where Harry was chosen by his own wand, on his very first visit to Diagon Alley™. Check out the LEGO® wand case – it's designed especially for this set.

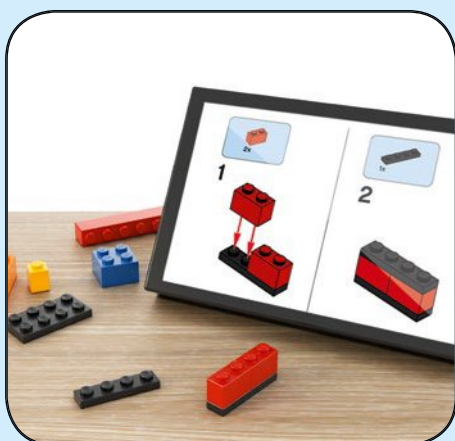

Scribbulus

A must-stop before the new school year. This magical stationery shop appears in the films Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets™ and Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince™.

The diagram shows three steps of assembly:

- 1: A white 1x2 plate is being inserted into the bottom hole of a blue 2x2 Technic brick.
- 2: The white plate is now inside the blue brick. Two red arrows point down from the bottom of the brick to a blue 2x2 Technic base plate, indicating it should be placed on top.
- 3: The assembly from step 2 is being placed on top of another identical assembly. Two red arrows point down from the top of the first assembly to the top of the second assembly, indicating they should be connected.

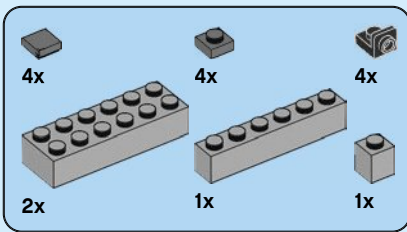

The final assembly is shown at the bottom right, consisting of two identical units stacked on top of each other, with the text 2x next to it.
